Every instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferee shall be delivered to the Company or its duly appointed agent for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Company may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, provided that where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Directors of the Company that an instrument of transfer signed by the transferor and transferee, has been lost the Company may, if the Directors think fit, on an application in writing made by the transferee and bearing the stamp required by an instrument of transfer, register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Directors may think fit. The instrument of transfer of shares shall be deposited with the Company within such time or times as may be prescribed by the Act or Rules made thereunder.	Transfer form to be delivered to the Company or its duly appointed agent and evidence of title given.
54.	The Directors may, if they so deem fit, charge in respect of every registration of membership on transmission and every registration of transfer of shares such fee as they may determine from time to time. The Directors may in their discretion not charge any such fees.	Fee on transfer or transmission.
55.	No transfer shall be made to any minor or person of unsound mind, but in the event of such transfer being registered, the transferor shall remain liable to the Company for all moneys due on the share so transferred notwithstanding such transfer.	Share not to be transferred to minor or persons of unsound.
56.	Subject to the provisions of Section 58 of the Act, the Board, without assigning any reason for such refusal, may, within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer was delivered to the Company, refuse to register any transfer of a share upon which the Company has a lien or the Board does not approve. Provided that registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except for a lien on shares.	Power to refuse registration of transfer
57.	In the case of refusal to register the transfer of any shares, the Company shall within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee and the transferor a notice of refusal.	Notice of refusal to be given to the transferor and transferee.
58.	All instruments of transfer, which shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.	Instrument of transfer to be retained.
59.	The Directors may, on giving seven day's previous notice by advertisement at least once in a vernacular newspaper in the principal vernacular language of the district and having a wide circulation in the place where the registered office of the Company is situated, and at least once in English language in an English newspaper circulating in that district and having wide circulation in the place where the registered office of the Company is situated and publish the notice on the website as may be notified by the Central Government and on the website, if any, of the Company, close the transfer books and Register of Members or debenture holders for any time or times not exceeding in the whole forty-five days in each year but not exceeding thirty days at a time.	Closure of the transfer books.

60.	The registration of a transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval by the Directors of the transfer so far only as the shares transferred are concerned but not further or otherwise nor shall it incapacitate the Directors from claiming the right to refuse registration of transfer of shares on any subsequent transfers applied for.	Registration of transfer conclusive evidence of approval by Directors.
61.	Neither the Company nor the directors shall incur any liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown on appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of any person or persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest to or in the said shares, notwithstanding that the Company or the Directors may have had notice of such equitable right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice, or referred thereto, in any book of the Company and neither the Company nor the Director shall be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest, or under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in some book of the Company, but the Company and the Directors shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto if they shall so think fit.	The Company not liable to disregard any notice prohibiting registration of a transfer.
62.	The executor or administrator of the holder of a succession certificate in respect of shares of deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only person whom the Company shall recognise as having any title the share registered in the name of such member and in case of the death of any one or more of the joint holder of any registered share, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title or release the estate of a deceased joint holder from liability on share held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognizing any executor or administrator or legal heir the Directors may require him to obtain a grant of Probate or Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate or other legal representation as the case may be from competent Court, provided nevertheless that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit it shall be lawful for the Directors to dispense with the production of probate or Letters of Administration or a Succession Certificate or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Directors may think fit and under the next article register the name of any person who claim to be absolutely entitled to the share standing in the name of the deceased person.	Transmission of registered shares.
63.	a. Any person becoming entitled to a share, in consequent of death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of any member or by any lawful means other than by a transfer, in accordance with these presents, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article or of his title as the Director think sufficient, may with the consent of the Directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give) and upon giving such indemnity as the Directors think fit either be registered himself as the holder of such share or may subject to the regulations as to transfer hereinbefore contained elect to have some persons nominated by him and approved by the Directors registered as the transferee thereof, provided nevertheless, that if such person shall elect to have his nominee registered he shall testify the election by executing in favour of his nominee an instrument of	Registration of person entitled to share otherwise than by transfer.

	transfer of such shares in accordance with the provision herein contained and until he does so, he shall not be freed from any liability in respect of the share. The Article is herein after referred to as the “transmission clause”. b. The Directors shall have the same right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission of any shares or his nominee as if he was transferee named in an ordinary instrument of transfer presented for registration.
64.	Every transmission of a share shall be verified in such manner as the Directors may require and the Company may refuse to register any such transmission until the same be so verified or until and unless an indemnity be given to the Company with regard to such registration which the Directors at their discretion, shall consider sufficient, provided nevertheless that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the directors to accept any indemnity.	Evidence of transmission to be verified.
65.	Until the Directors otherwise determine a person becoming entitled to a share by transmission shall not be entitled to receive notices of or save as provided in Article 109 hereof to attend or vote at meetings of the Company, or save as aforesaid, to any of the rights and privileges of a member unless and until he shall be registered himself as a member in respect of the share.	Right of such person.
66.	Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in the case of transfer of shares/debentures or other marketable securities where the Company has not issued any certificates and where such shares or securities are being held in an electronic and fungible form, the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 shall apply”.
LIEN ON SHARES
67.	The Company shall have a first paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with other) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and no equitable interest in any shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that this Article is to have full effect and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company’s lien, if any, on such shares. The directors may at any time declare any shares to be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article.	Company lien on share.
68.	For the purpose of enforcing the Company’s lien on shares the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit and transfer the same to the name of the purchaser without any consent and notwithstanding any objection or opposition on the part of the indebted member or any other person or persons interested therein and a complete title to the shares which shall be sold be acquired by the purchaser, by virtue of such sale and transfer against such indebted member and all persons claiming with or under him, whether he may be indebted to the Company in point of fact or not. Any such transfer may be signed on behalf of such member by any one of the Directors provided however that no such sale shall be made until such period as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing stating the amount due, or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding payment or discharge or fulfillment thereof and of the intention to sell in default shall have been served upon such member, of his legal representatives, or upon	Lien enforced by sale.

	the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares and default shall have been made by him or them, in payment, fulfillments or discharge or such debts, liabilities or engagements for seven days after the date mentioned in such notice.
69.	The net proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable and the residue if any shall be paid to such member, his executors or administrators or assigns or other legal representatives as the case may be.	Application of proceeds of sale.
FORFEITURE OF SHARES
70.	If any member fails to pay any money due from him in respect of any call made or, installment due on any share or any sum which by the terms of issue of any becomes payable at fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, or any such extension thereof or any interest due on such call or installment, or any expenses that may have been incurred thereon, the directors or any person authorized by them for that purpose, may at any time thereafter, during such time as such money remains unpaid, give notice to such member or legal representative or person then by way of advertisement, requiring him to pay the money payable in respect of such share, together with such interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non payment.	If any money payable on shares not paid notice to be given to member
71.	The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and a place or places at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of the non payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.	If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited.
72.	If the requisitions of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any share in respect of which such notice has been given, may at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or installments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividend declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.	If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited
73.	Where any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, or to his legal representative or the person entitled to the share by transmission by writing sent to the registered address of such member or of such representative or persons through such person then by way of advertisement and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members. The provisions of this article are however discretionary only and no forfeiture shall in any manner be invalidate by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make any such entry as aforesaid.	Notice of forfeiture
74.	Any share so forfeited shall deemed to be the property of the Company and the directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same upon such terms and in such manner as they may think fit. Upon any sale, reallocation or other disposal, the certificate or certificates originally issued in respect of those shares shall stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect.	Forfeiture share to become property of the Company.

75.	In the meantime and until any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise dealt with as aforesaid, the forfeiture thereof may, at the discretion and by a resolution of the directors, be remitted and annulled as a matter of grace and favour but not as of right, upon such terms and conditions as they think fit.	Forfeiture remitted or annulled.
76.	Any member whose shares shall have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, installments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon, from the time of the forfeiture until payment, at such rate not exceeding nine per cent per annum as the directors may determine in the same manner in all respects as if the shares have not been forfeited without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture and the directors may (but it being not so obligatory) enforce the payment of such money or any part thereof if they think fit without entitling such member or his representative to any remission of such forfeiture or to any compensation for the same on behalf of the Company as they shall think fit.	Member still liable to pay money due notwithstanding forfeiture.
77.	The forfeiture of a share involves the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.	Effect of forfeiture
78.	A certificate in writing under the hands of a Director or any other person who may be appointed for the purpose by the Directors that the call or installment in respect of a shares was made or was due or the interest in respect of a call or installment was payable as the case may be that notice thereof specified as aforesaid was given and default in payment was made and that the forfeiture of the shares was made by a resolution of the Directors to that effect shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons entitled to or interested in such shares and such certificate and the receipt of the Company for the price such share shall constitute a good title to such share in the purchase of allottees of such share who shall as he has completed his purchase or accepted such allotment, be entered in the Register of Members as the holder of the share. Any such purchaser or allottee shall not (unless by express agreement) be entitled to any of the dividends, interests or bonuses accrued or which might have accrued upon the shares before the time of completing his purchase or before such allotment. Such purchaser or allottee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or allotment money nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture of such share or the sale thereof.	Certificate of forfeiture.
79.	The Directors may accept the surrender of any share by way of compromise of any question so to the holder being properly registered in respect thereof or on any other terms they think fit, provided that the Directors shall not have the power to purchase the share of any member with the money of the Company.	Directors may accept surrender of any share.
80.	Upon any sale after forfeiture or surrender of for enforcing a lien exercised by virtue of the powers herein before given, the Directors may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of the shares held and the person to whom the shares are sold or disposed of shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the share be effected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the	Validity of share forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. The validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
